The 4th Annual UAE Global Investment Forum

May 3, 2011 – Emirates Palace, Abu Dhabi

Tuesday May 3, 2011

08.00-09.00	Registration and Continental Breakfast
09.00-09.10	Welcome Remarks: Institutional Investor
09.10-09.20	Keynote Address: H.E. Nasser Ahmed Alsowaidi , Chairman, Department of Economic Development – Abu Dhabi
09.20-09.40	Presentation: Outlook for the UAE Dr. Giyas Gokkent , Group Chief Economist, National Bank of Abu Dhabi
09.40-10.40	PANEL – OUTLOOK FOR A WORLD FOCUSED ON EMERGING MARKETS
	The global balance of economic power is fast shifting towards the emerging markets. This is creating many opportunities for investors and changing the way investors view the world. How are emerging markets expected to perform in the year ahead? How are emerging markets changing the balance of power in the world economy? What are the key challenges facing emerging economies? What's next in the Middle East's wave of political change? How is governmental reform going to impact the region's economic outlook and investor sentiment? Will the UAE's classification change from frontier to emerging in the near future? How are trade and business relationships with emerging markets becoming increasingly important for the UAE? How can the UAE capitalize on investor appetite for emerging market exposure?
	Panellists: H.E. Mohammed Omar Abdullah , Undersecretary, Department of Economic Development – Abu Dhabi Ala'a Eraiqat , Chief Executive Officer, Abu Dhabi Commercial Bank Ajit Ranade , Chief Economist, Aditya Birla Group Dr. Florence Eid , Chief Executive Officer, Arabia Monitor
10.40-11.10	Coffee Break

11:30-12:30	PANEL – DIVERSIFICATION: DEFINING ABU DHABI'S ECONOMIC OUTLOOK
	Successful economic diversification is central to the emirate's economic outlook. The goals set out in the Abu Dhabi Economic Vision 2030 plan are ambitious and include some of the world's largest infrastructure and industrial projects. Are infrastructure and industrial projects meeting their goals? How can Abu Dhabi strengthen its position as a centre for high-tech industry? How is the government supporting development? What are the opportunities for international investors? How is Abu Dhabi differentiating itself from its neighbors?
	Chaired by: Oliver Cornock , Group Editor – Gulf, Oxford Business Group Panellists: H.E. Mohammed H. Al Qamzi , Chief Executive Officer, ZonesCorp Mohamed Al Azdi , Chief Executive Officer, ChemaWEyaat

14:10-15:10	PANEL – PROSPECTS FOR THE UAE'S FINANCIAL SECTOR
	The health of global financial markets are improving but volatile markets still pose great risks to banks and investors. Are the UAE's banks sufficiently capitalized? To what extent can the financial sector support development projects in Abu Dhabi? Where are the best opportunities to be had for international investors? Are Abu Dhabi equities undervalued? Is international and local investor sentiment improving?
	Panellists: Mahmood Al Aradi , Senior General Manager, Financial Markets, National Bank of Abu Dhabi Orhan Osmansoy , Chief Executive Officer, The National Investor Patrick Daniels , Partner, Director of Business Development, Robbins, Geller Rudman & Dowd Kenin Taylor , Executive Vice President, Group Treasurer, Abu Dhabi Commercial Bank
15:10-15:40	Coffee Break
15:40-16:00	Interview: Political Reform and Economic Development: A New Outlook for the Middle East Tarik M. Yousef , Dean, Dubai School of Government
16:00-17:00	PANEL – INVESTING IN ABU DHABI: CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES
	Abu Dhabi's economic success is largely dependent on its ability to attract the right foreign investment and intellectual capital. With many other gulf economies also setting this as a priority, how is Abu Dhabi differentiating itself from its neighbors? How is the wave of political change sweeping through the Middle East affecting the way investors view investment opportunities in Abu Dhabi? What are international investors' key considerations when looking at opportunities in Abu Dhabi? Are the necessary regulations in place to allow foreign investment to flourish? What more needs to be done to ensure Abu Dhabi is an attractive destination for international investment?
	Chaired by: Oliver Cornock , Group Editor – Gulf, Oxford Business Group Panellists: Ahmad Ghaida , Director of Economic Planning, Department of Economic Development – Abu Dhabi Mauricio Zuazua , Senior Consultant, A.T. Kearney * Wissam Moukahal , Partner, Audit, Deloitte & Touche, M.E.
17:00-19:00	Cocktail Reception

* Subject to final confirmation
